

THE DESTRUCTION WAS ENORMOUS

Estimate of Loss From Frost
Placed at One Million Dollars.

IN NORFOLK COUNTY ALONE

Injunction Proceedings Against
Salvation Army
Drum.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., April 20.—Captain Henry Kirm, the greatest truck raiser in this section, estimates that the losses of farmers in Tidewater Virginia will reach the vast sum of $1,000,000, and his individual losses at $200. Mr. Kirm, in speaking of the matter to-day, said that until the frost of three nights ago, there had been none for four weeks, and crops, particularly strawberries, had had favorable conditions; the blossoms came early, and the berries followed and were in fine condition.

The frost that came Monday night did great damage, but the one of Tuesday night, Mr. Kirm thought, did even more, as there was no wind and the frost covered every section. Strawberries were ruined, potatoes cut down and beans destroyed. The farmers expected to make considerable money on beans, but did not have much hope for the potatoes.

THE KING NEGROES NORTH.
Negro laborers to the number of two hundred and fifty passed through here on the Southern Railway, bound for Hackensack, N. Y., and other places on the Hudson River, where they will be put to work in brick yards. They came from Danville and vicinity, and there are other negroes waiting for transportation for the same destination.

SALVATION ARMY NOISES.
A. B. Gralle and other residents of East Main Street, began injunction proceedings in the Court of Law and Chancery this morning against Captain Heather and the headquarters of the Salvation Army, at No. 46 East Main Street. By agreement of counsel, the hearing was postponed till Saturday, pending which Captain Heather promised not to aggravate the noises on which the complaint is based.

Attorney Duncan declared that it was not the idea of the complainants to make any objection to the manner in which Captain Heather and his followers choose to worship God, but that they believed they had some right to object to such noises as they were being subjected to in Norfolk, and that they thought Captain Heather had located in the wrong neighborhood, and that he needed to select a place for his drum and tambourine worship in some locality where people who work in the daytime and want to sleep at night, will not be annoyed.

The complainants and petitioners were making no attempt, Attorney Duncan declared, to break up the Salvationists in Norfolk, but they thought Captain Heather had located in the wrong neighborhood, and that he needed to select a place for his drum and tambourine worship in some locality where people who work in the daytime and want to sleep at night, will not be annoyed.

Vernon Kuhl, Herbert Bateman and Nat. Gilbert, half-grown boys, were fined $20 each in the Police Court this morning and sent to jail in default on the charge of assaulting a negro farm hand, James Moore, "just for meanness," as one of the boys declared.

SUIT FOR FIG TREE.
E. T. Thomas was arraigned in the Police Court this morning for the embezzlement of a fig tree belonging to T. F. Snyder. Thomas sold a lot containing a house and a fig tree to Snyder, and then asked for the return of the fig tree. Mrs. Snyder refused, saying that she wanted the fig tree and the house, too. Thomas consented a purchase and built a fence to his lot, including the fig tree, and dug up the tree. Then there was a quarrel. The city engineer decided that Thomas had taken five feet of land which belongs to Snyder, and that included the hole where the fig tree formerly flourished. Owing to the absence of the surveyor, the case was postponed till Tuesday, but Thomas declared that he was ready to make restitution.

PERRY-BRITON.
At the Monticello Hotel yesterday afternoon Miss Mary Briton and J. B. R. Perry, both of Powellsville, N. C., were united in marriage. Rev. Dr. J. B. Thacker, of the Second Presbyterian Church, this city, officiated. They left last evening, via the Old Bay Line for a Northern trip.

POND-BARRETT.
Miss Josie E. Barrett and Mr. Charles E. Pond were married this morning at the residence of the bride, No. 230 South Clay Avenue, by the Rev. Dr. C. B. Blackwell.
Only the immediate family was present. The bridal couple left on the Seaboard train for Garyville, N. C., and on their return will reside in this city.

A MINISTER'S BRIDE.
Marriage of Rev. R. E. Atkinson and Miss Mattie M. Gregory.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
KEYSVILLE, VA., April 20.—Miss Mattie M. Gregory, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Gregory, and Rev. R. E. Atkinson, of St. Clair, Mo., were married at 12 o'clock to-day at Keysville Baptist Church, by Rev. H. T. Williams, of Chase City, assisted by Rev. J. W. H. Dyches. The church was beautifully decorated. The bride entered the church with her brother-in-law, Mr. George A. Reynolds, and proceeded down the aisle, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Mr. Lee W. Morton. On her head was a pearl buckle, worn by her mother at her wedding, and also her sister, Mrs. Reynolds, at her marriage. The bride wore a white gown, and the bride was a bride gift to her mother. The maid of honor was Miss Daisy Gregory, sister of the bride. Mrs. George A. Reynolds, of Chatham, another sister, was matron of honor. Little Elsie Reynolds was flower girl. The best man was Mr. P. R. Taylor, of Lynchburg, and the ushers were Messrs. A. B. Hanner and R. T. Hail. The groom is pastor of St. Clair M. B. Church, St. Clair, Mo. The bridal couple left for their Missouri home.

North-Tooley.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOWARDVILLE, VA., April 20.—Miss Nora Tooley, of this place, was married to-day in Lynchburg to Mr. Ellis North, of Lynchburg, by Rev. J. B. Callous, brother-in-law of the bride. The best man was Mr. P. R. Taylor, of Lynchburg, and the ushers were Messrs. A. B. Hanner and R. T. Hail. The groom is pastor of St. Clair M. B. Church, St. Clair, Mo.
